Master Index for Filing Overhead Transparencies and Sheet Music

March 2013

1. This index gives THE OFFICIAL ORDER for filing the overhead transparencies and sheet music.

Song title is in Italics, first line in [plain text]

2. Both transparencies and sheet music are filed in alphabetical order of the first line, NOT THE TITLE. e.g. the transparency for Sandyland is filed under “Don’t build your house”.

If there is a well known song title like Sandyland, the index separately lists both the title (indented, in italics) and the first line, and cross-references them to each other for easy searching.

3. In the list and the filing a space between words is treated as a letter before “a” in the alphabet.

Thus:	“A Purple Robe”	comes before	“Ah Lord God”
	“I will...”	comes before	“If I were...”
	“The Wise Man...”	comes before	“There is...”

4. Apostrophes are ignored, thus “I’m” is treated as “Im”
5. Numbers are shown for songs for which the music and words are in Hymns of Faith (HoF) or Scripture in Song (SIS)
